

Upcoming PGC Basic Rifle Course

June 23, 2024: NRA Basic Rifle Shooting Class (8 openings)

All PGC Classes are open to PGC members and their direct family members. There is a fee of $25 for each student to reimburse the club for the training materials provided to each person and the consumables used in the conduct of the course. Direct Family members include: Spouse, grandparents, parents, children, children's spouses, brothers, sisters, and grandchildren.

NOTE: At the instructor's discretion PGC Classes may be offered to individuals who do not qualify as a "direct family member." For the Basic Rifle class, Club Members may recommend those who do not qualify as a "direct family member." The class fee will be $50 for these individuals to account for the value offered by the club resources. Individuals in this category will not be able to get a confirmed seat in the class until three weeks prior to the class date.

NRA Basic Rifle Shooting Class:

This class is appropriate for novice (new to rifle shooting) through advanced beginner (have shot a rifle but wish to improve their capabilities) rifle shooters. We'll explore rifle fundamentals, safety, and the five elements of accurate rifle shooting. You'll also have the opportunity to experience different shooting positions, including benchrest, standing, and, time permitting, sitting, kneeling and prone. Juniors are welcome as well – at their parents' discretion.

This class is highly recommended for those considering enrolling in the Advanced Marksmanship class.

Equipment Provided: .22 Semi-Automatic Rifles and Ammunition are provided as part of the course.

Equipment needed: Eye and Ear Protection
